Panama City, Florida.

Dear Mr. West:-

Enclosed herewith you will find duplicate of Policy No. 29185, dated as of May 23, 1878. When applied for it was made payable to your then wife, Adelia M., now deceased. By the terms of the Policy, your children succeeded your former wife as its beneficiaries. You now wish to make your present wife the beneficiary of that Policy. That is agreeable to The Travelers Insurance Company. Be good enough to have the enclosed document properly made up showing the names, dates of birth, sex, etc., of your children, signed and sworn to before a Notary Public and then sent to this office, and then, if they are all of full legal age, we will take pleasure in preparing the necessary papers for completion so that your present wife, Lillian C., may become that Policy's beneficiary.

Yours truly,

John H. Nolan

General Agent.
